

Winter Weather Update

November 2, 2012

National Weather Service
Bismarck, ND

<http://www.weather.gov/bis>

Phone: 701-250-4224

Find us on
Facebook

Twitter

@NWSBismarck

Winter Weather Update Highlights

What	Where	Timing	Impacts
Wintry Mix of Snow, Sleet and Freezing Rain	Primarily from Williston to Watford City and Killdeer	Through Friday afternoon.	Slick roadways
Snow Accumulations 1-2 Inches	Along and north of a line from Williston to Washburn and Jamestown	Through Friday night	Slick roadways
Snow Accumulation 2-4 Inches	Along and north of a line from Crosby to Garrison to Carrington	Through Friday night	Slick roadways

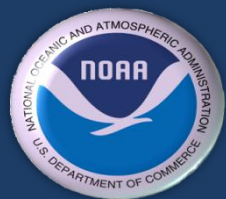

Winter Weather Update

Key Points

- Light to moderate snow, mixed with freezing rain and sleet, primarily from Williston to Watford City and Killdeer.
- Wintry mix will become mainly snow tonight.
- Highest snow accumulations of 2 to 4 inches will occur along and north of a line from Crosby to Garrison, to Carrington
- Wind will not have a significant impact.

Winter Weather Advisory

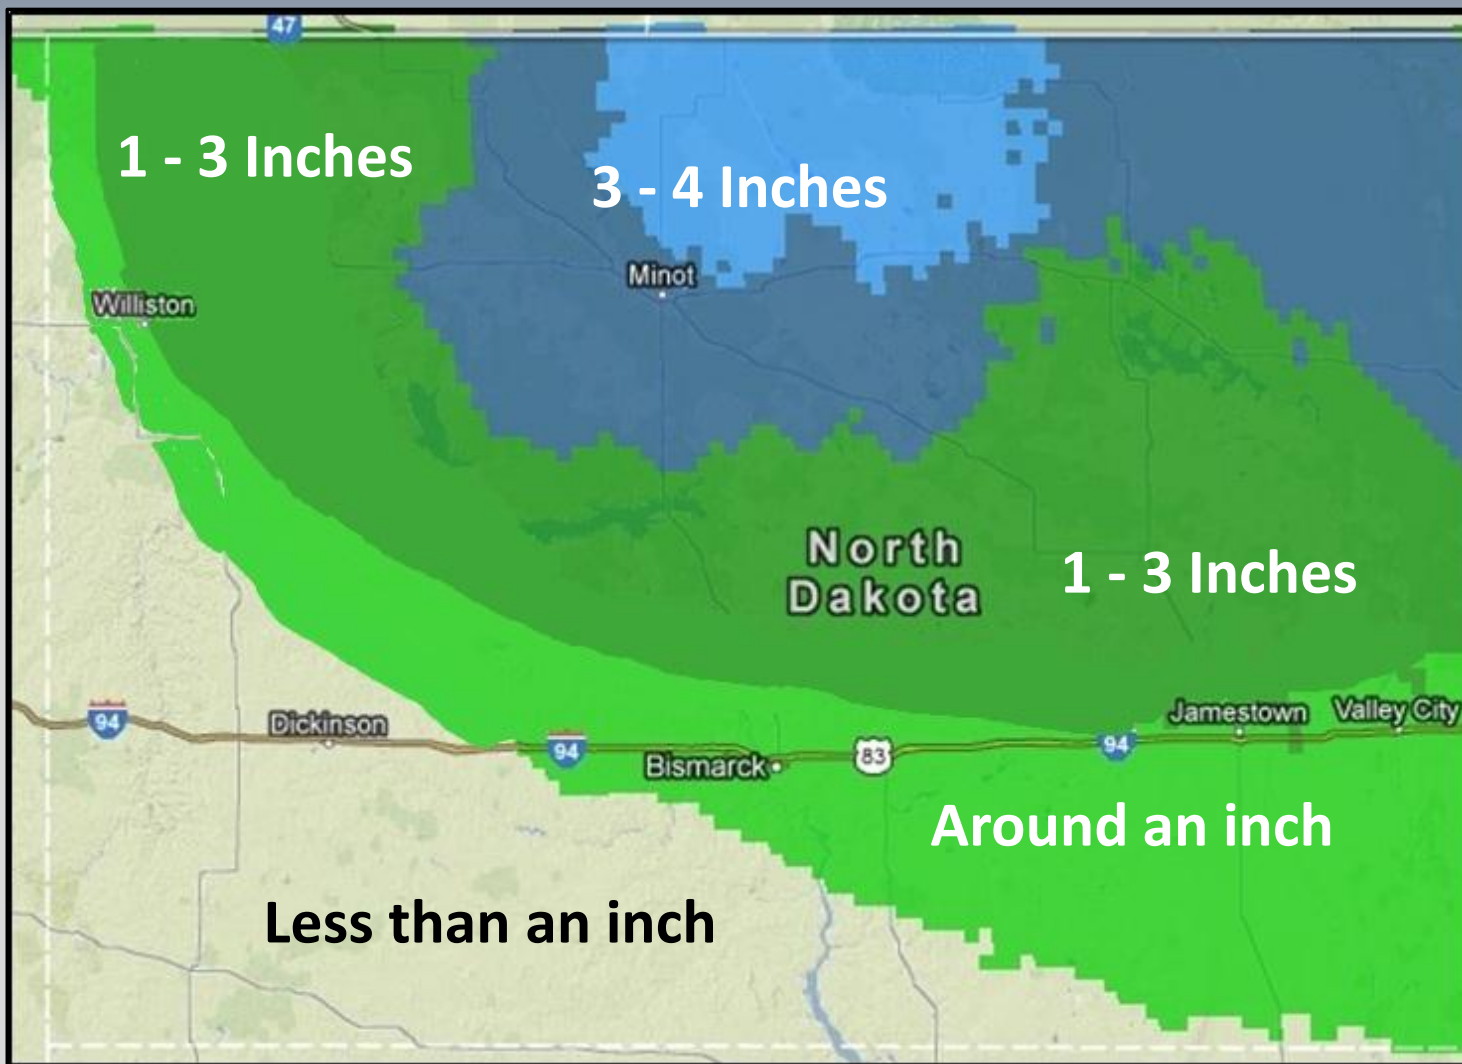

In Effect through late Friday night

Forecast Snowfall Amounts

Through late Friday night

Winter Weather Update Highlights

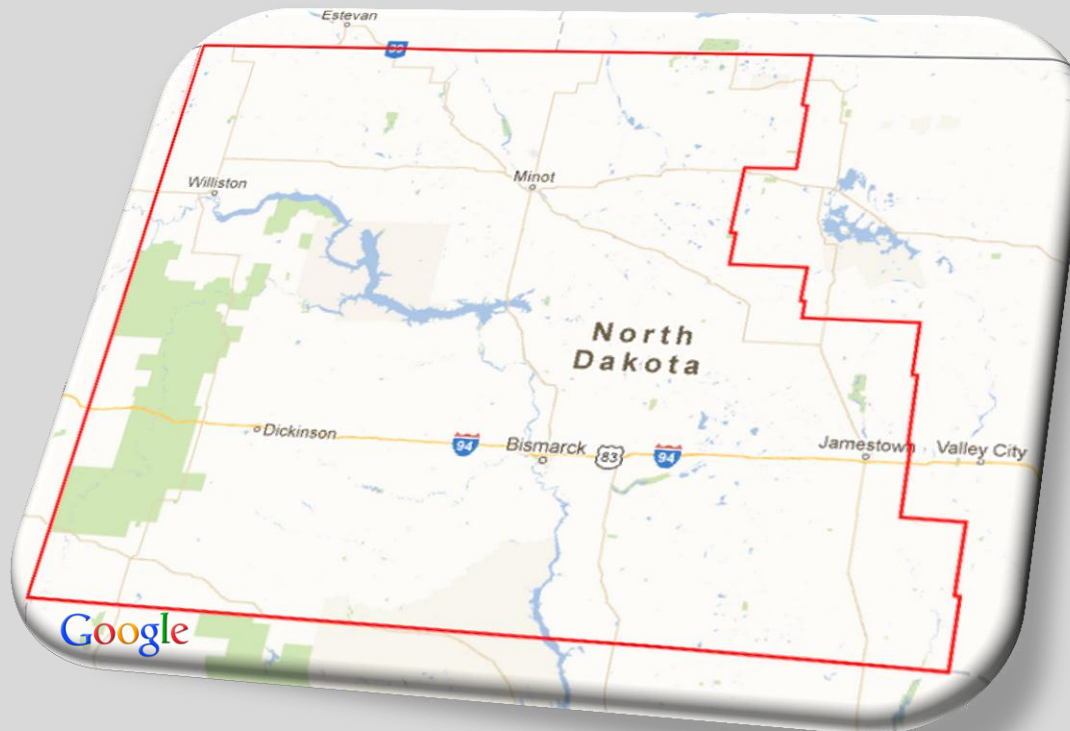

What	Where	Timing	Impacts
Wintry Mix of Snow, Sleet and Freezing Rain	Primarily from Williston to Watford City and Killdeer	Through Friday afternoon.	Slick roadways
Snow Accumulations 1-2 Inches	Along and north of a line from Williston to Washburn and Jamestown	Through Friday night	Slick roadways
Snow Accumulation 2-4 Inches	Along and north of a line from Crosby to Garrison to Carrington	Through Friday night	Slick roadways

Winter Weather Update

November 2, 2012

For questions and additional information:

Find us on
Facebook

NWS Bismarck, ND

<http://www.weather.gov/bis>

Phone: 701-250-4224

Twitter

@NWSBismarck